Program

Nabucco (Overture).....Giuseppe Verdi (1813-1901)

The Nabucco Overture (short for Nebuchadnezzar) comes from Verdi's opera, which tells the Biblical story of the defeat and exile of the Jews from their homeland by the Babylonian King Nebuchadnezzar. Composed in 1842, it was the first major success from the operatic composer who would later write La Traviata, and Aida. The overture begins with a low brass chorale that represents the steadfast faith of the Hebrews in their time of defeat and enslavement. Contained in the overture is the famous, Va pensiero, in which the chorus of Hebrew slaves sing longingly of their lost homeland, "Go, my thoughts, on golden wings; fly and settle on the slopes and hills." The chorus was soon embraced as an iconic voice in the struggle for Italian Unification. In 1901, the 100,000 mourners attending Verdi's funeral spontaneously sang Va pensiero as their choral benediction to Italy's beloved composer.

Down a Country Lane.....Aaron Copland (1900-1990)

British Eighth.....Zo Elliott (1891-1964)

Intermission

A Childhood Remembered.....Rosanno Galante (b. 1967)

Watchman, Tell Us of the Night.....Mark Camphouse (b. 1954)

A Hymn for all children, Watchman, Tell Us of the Night portrays the loneliness, loss of innocence and yet enduring hope of the survivor of child abuse. The work is a musical tribute to survivors, often dreamlike in nature, as seen through the eyes of the child. The title for the composition is taken from John Browning's 1825 text, Watchman, Tell Us of the Night. This text is frequently sung as alternate lyrics to John Elvey's hymn tune, St. George's Windsor - also known as the "Thanksgiving Hymn", Come, Ye Thankful People Come. "Watchman, tell us of the night. For the morning seems to dawn; Traveler, darkness takes its flight; Doubt and terror are withdrawn. Watchman, let thy wanderings cease; hie thee to thy quiet home. Traveler, yes; it brings the day. Healing wholeness now has come!"

Amazing Grace.....Frank Ticheli (b. 1958)

"I wanted my setting of AMAZING GRACE to reflect the powerful simplicity of words and melody - to be sincere, to be direct, to be honest - and not through the use of novel harmonies and clever tricks, but by traveling paths in search of truth and authenticity. I believe that music has the power to take us to a place that words alone cannot. And so my own feelings about "Amazing Grace" reside in the setting itself. The harmony, texture, orchestration, and form are inseparable, intertwined so as to be perceived as a single expressive entity." - Frank Ticheli
